PROPOSITION REJECTED. - The following proposition was presented to the City Council on the 13th ultimo, referred to the Committee its acceptance : FFEEEAD MIT ATEROISO),

PROPOSITION.

ALEXANDRIA, VA., Nov. 13, 1866.

To the Honorable City Council of Alexandria: Gentlemen :- Andrew Jackson Lodge, No.

as accomplish our own purpose, We would most respectfully ask whether we could get the right to build over the piers of the market a two-story building, the first story with the accommodation of the porch for offices, (say five,) and over and above a lodge room, for the use of the lodge; and on these terms the lodge to go to the expense of building, with the right to collect all rents accruing from the offices, until such time as the expense of said building shall have been paid; and after the building is paid for, the Corporation to assume full control of the offices below, and the lodge the full control of the third story. In asking the above we do not desire, nor do we intend, in any way to interfere with the lodge room of our sister lodge. Most respectfully, B. F. PRICE, M. of A. J. L.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE. To the City Council of Alexandria, Va.:
The Committee on Public Property, to whom was referred the application of Andrew Jack-

Beg leave to report that they have given the matter due consideration; And while they deplore the dilapidated condition of the property asked to be improved. They cannot recommend to accept a proposition that would place the second story of the improvement beyond the control of the City Council for a number of years, and give the lodge a perpetual right to the third story, for what we consider a very small consideration.

ty with perpetual grants, And hope the day is not far distant when the city will be able to erect a building that will be an ornament to that locality, or at least conform to the adjoining building.

In conclusion the Committee recommend that the application of Andrew Jackson Lodge be ATTEMPTED HOUSE RUBBERY.-Last night an attempt was made to enter the dwelling house on Duke street adjoining the residence of Alderman Fleming, but the inmates becoming laware of the design, made such a noise that the thieves ran off. In the alarm created ed a bill to incorporate the Farmers and among the people of the house by the attempt to rob them, the door of Mr. Fleming's residence received severe injury in consequence of of Propositions and Grievances. their efforts to arouse his family.

MEMPHIS. - We are indebted to Mr. A. J. Sinclair, formerly the popular clerk at the Mansion House, now of the Gayoso House in Memphis, for an invitation to a grand compli-, ventary Soiree Dansante, to be given at the G. Woso on the 28th instant. Mr. Sinclair writ es us that all the Alexandrians in Memphis are in a "flournabing condition."

ATTE VPTED HIGH WAY ROBBERY.-Last night, abe fut seven o'clock, as Mr. William Holenstein, a butcher, who reside. turnpike, near Ivy Hill Cemeter, tacked by ing home from this city, he was at. three men, but; he made such a despera sistance that i he footpads were glad to let h. alone, and get out of his reach.

RAILROAD TRACK RELAID. - About a mile of the track of the Orange and Alexandria railroad, comi nencing at the Amherst end of the bridge a cross James river, and going North, has b een relaid with new iron. We learn it is the intention of the company to replace the old with new rails, as fast as they can be procured.

CHRISTMAS TIMES .- - The little folks, and some of larger g rowth, are beginning to look about for Christinas g ifts, toys, cakes, &c .-The confectioners ha d better attend to this and let the public ! rnow, by advertisement, where the best and cl seapest can be found.

ALEXANDRIA - W care pleased to see that the Alexandria Gaze the expresses the opinion that a better day to r Alexandria is coming, and that with a little patience and with a little Howard, B. W. McPherson, Maryland; Benja and that with a little patience and with a little time her revival in trade will commence, her business be renewed, and her prosperity, reasonable and gradual, he secured. We would be pleased to see this old I Virginia town flourish as the green bay tree. The efforts made by as the green bay tree. The efforts made by the Radicals to tear her, nolens volens, from the embracing arms of her d'ear oid mother, but serves to endear her to us the more .--Staunton Spectator.

ALMOST A DUEL. - The shore of the Potomac in Alexandria county came very near being the scene of a duel on yesterday morning. The facts of the case, as we are informed, are about as follows: Judge Able, who holds an on Public Property, who reported adversely to official position in Mississippi, met Dr. Sidney of the same State, in the Capitol square yesterday evening. The Doctor remarked to a friend who was with him that as he had once fought him in a duel he did not wish to notice him. Gentlemen:—Andrew Jackson Lodge, No. 120, of A. F. A. M., holding a charter under the doctor as follows:—"You are a renegade the Grand Lodge of Virginia, being desirous of the doctor. What are you doing here?" procuring a lodge room, and knowing that the north side of the Market Building is in a very dilapidated condition, and thinking that we could mutually benefit the Corporation, as well accomplish our own purpose.

Southerner. What are you doing here?' The response was a knock-down blow. A challenge from Judge Able followed. They were to fight with rifles on the Virginia shore yesterday at noon, but the matter was subsequently amica-bly arranged and no fight came off. Judge Able is a Johnson man and Dr. Sidney is a Southern radical. Sidney was in the Mississippi Legislature and voted against the ordinance of secession. His second in the contemplated duel was Colonel Fish, of Louisiana; that of Judge Able, Colonel Wentworth.

> GOLD IN FAIRFAX. - We are informed by Dr. Paul Gregory, that he has a specimen of gold, and a small portion of quartz, found on lard within six miles of this city, weighing two and a half ounces, which Professor Henry thinks is a pure article. On the farm adjoining the one on which this specimen was found, the Dr. says he washed out seven ounces of gold inside of two days, and he is under the impression that this gold is found in the vein which runs through Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina and Georgia. He has leased a large quantity of land in the vicinity of where his specimens were discovered.

SUPPOSED MURDER. - From appearances first noticed on Monday morning last, near Fish Town, it is supposed by some that a murder was committed on Sunday night last, on Union street near the corner of Princess. On the same night the jib was stolen from the to pay expenses. Persons interested will please sloop of Jerry Robb, at that time lying at anchor in the dock opposite that spot. This morning it was rumored that the body of a man wrapped in a sail, had been found in the river near the fish wharf, but, though the docks in that vicinity have been dragged no corpse has been found.

THE REMAINS OF MR. JOHN McCOBB.—The remains of Mr. John McCobb, formerly a resident of this city, who died in Baltimore during the war, were brought here on the steamer Columbia, on Sunday evening last, and buried in the grave yard of the Methodist Episcopal Church, the following Monday. The corpse was accompanied to its final resting timore, and his former friends and acquaintances | Dress Circle..... residing in Georgetown and in this city.

> THE STEAMER EXPRESS. -The steamer Express, of the Potomac Transportation Line, due here yesterday evening, did not arrive until six o'clock this morning, in consequence of the large amount of way freight she had to take on. At Mathias' Point, in receiving some cattle, one steer jumped over board, but
